

ÅLAND XXXVIII ORGAN FESTIVAL 24–30 JUNE 2012

ÅLANDS ORGEL FESTIVAL

Åland's oldest annual music event. This year's Åland Organ Festival is the 38th in a row and starts the local cultural summer. The Festival offers highclass concerts with both national and international artists from Sweden, Germany, Switzerland, Poland, Australia and the Czech Republic.

The festival is opened with a Sunday service held by Jon Lindeman in the church of Finström and music by the vocalist ensemble Laudate, accompanied by organist Kaj-Gustav Sandholm. Åland tenor Christian Juslin and Swedish organist Mathias Kjellgren gives an opening concert in the church of Jomala and the following day in the church of Föglö. Young Czech organist František Vaníček gives an interesting concert in the church of Sund. Martin Heini from Zürich plays e.g. Widor's entire fifth symphony in Lemland. Professor Franz Lörch from Munich and Pauli Pietiläinen from Lahti play at lunch concerts in Mariehamn.

For the first time we also have the pleasure to listen to an Australian baroque ensemble that performs in the churches of Eckerö and Finström. Four teachers from the Åland Music Institute give concerts in the church of Sottunga and in the House of Prayer at Vårdö. Apart from presenting the programme, Ulf Samuelsson also plays in the concert "Bach in the summer night" in the church of Mariehamn. The Festival's Grande Finale is held in the church of Saltvik by trumpet player Roman Gryn and organist Bogdan Narloch from Poland.

Two of the concerts have live transmission from the balcony.
