

ÅLAND XXXIX ORGAN FESTIVAL 23–29 JUNE 2013

ÅLANDS ORGEL FESTIVAL

Åland's oldest annual music event will soon celebrate its 40th anniversary, 2014 and 2015. But this year as well, the week after Midsummer, the appreciated music festival starts, offering concerts of high class, featuring many famous artists.

The festival is opened with a service, this time in the church of Jomala, held by vicar Roger Syrén and organist Eva-Helena Hansen. In the church of Mariehamn you will be able to listen to four organ concerts with Anders Forsman from Helsinki, Inger-Lise Ulsrud from Oslo, Andrew Canning from Uppsala and Henryk Gwardak from Åland. The theme of one of the concerts will be Johann Sebastian Bach.

At the other concerts in the countryside apart from organ music, there will be other instruments and even singing and dancing. In the church of Finström two Spanish artists will perform: the mezzo-soprano Monika Czalej Pujol and the organist Miquel Gonzalez from Barcelona. Dumitru Harea from Moldavia will play the pan-pipe in the church of Saltvik and he will be accompanied by Marek Stefanski from Poland on the organ.

In the church of Sund a French duet, Mathilde Le Tac on the transverse flute and Mathieu Freyburger on the organ will perform with an interesting and varied programme.

Dancing to organ music is new this year. At the final concert in the church of Jomala the Swede Morgan Karlsson will be dancing to French romantic organ music played by Håkan Dahlén from Örnsköldsvik. The artists themselves will also introduce the show.

Besides, the programme of the festival will be introduced by Ulf Samuelsson from Stockholm. He is already known to the audience from former festivals. Two concerts in Mariehamn will also be transmitted via video.
